

Bankruptcy and Creditor Rights

A CLEAR PATH TO RESOLUTION

Ball Janik LLP's Bankruptcy and Creditor Rights practice has helped clients find a clear path to resolution in some of the Pacific Northwest's most challenging insolvencies and bankruptcy cases. Our attorneys are highly regarded and recognized for their contributions and experience.

The practice spans all areas of creditor rights and insolvency law, including representation of institutional lenders, secured and unsecured creditors, lessors, debtors and debtors-in-possession, creditors' committees, bankruptcy trustees, and receivers.

Community and regional banks, as well as national financial institutions, come to us with problem loans, including loans to debtors in bankruptcy and loans secured by all types of collateral. In addition, we represent borrowers in loan workouts and out-of-court restructurings. Our experience and skill have attracted clients seeking to acquire loan portfolios, businesses and assets that are in distressed condition or part of a bankruptcy.
