RESHAPING THE LANDSCAPE OF THE REGION

Since its founding in 1982, Ball Janik LLP has become widely recognized for the depth, breadth and impact of its experience in real estate law. Combining big-picture strategic counsel with comprehensive technical skills, our real estate attorneys have helped reshape the landscape of the region. We serve public and private clients in all phases of commercial and residential development, commercial leasing, commercial acquisitions and dispositions, financing and equity arrangements, and restructuring and workouts. The Real Estate practice works seamlessly with Ball Janik's land use, environmental, and litigation professionals to solve regulatory challenges, structure and finance deals, and resolve disputes.

Our peers and clients interviewed by Chambers USA say we are "highly responsive, top-flight deal-makers with a passion for solving problems." We have been ranked in the top band by Chambers USA every year Chambers has reported in Oregon. We have been named as the 2011 "Oregon Real Estate Law Firm of the Year" and we were considered the "Best Law Firm in Oregon for Real Estate Work 2009/10" according to Corporate International Magazine.
